TRIBUTE TO KATHY ORTIZ

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 11, 2003

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I rise today to honor Kathy Ortiz of Pueblo, Colorado for the selfless act of courage she displayed on November 8, 2002. Kathy's quick actions, along with the efforts of other students from Centennial High School, helped Edith Lichtenberg to safety after flames engulfed her home.

On November 8, 2002, billowing smoke one block from Centennial High School prompted a group of students—Prince Speights, Clint Albrecht, Nick Pino, Kathy Ortiz, Linus Trujillo, and Taylor Proctor—into action. Driving toward the smoke, the group quickly discovered the bushes and trees in 86-year-old Edith Lichtenberg's yard ablaze and used a cell phone to contact emergency dispatchers. The flames rapidly spread to the house and the group moved swiftly to make sure no one was in the home. With the fire engulfing the front of the house, the students jumped the locked fence around the backyard to warn anyone who might still be inside. Noticing the back door open and seeing Ms. Lichtenberg still inside, they caught her attention and guided her outside away from the flames. Kathy courageously assisted in getting Ms. Lichtenberg out of the house, and the group moved her to safety.

The youths maintained their composure during a time of adversity and conducted themselves in a fashion that has brought honor to themselves, their families, their school, and the entire community of Pueblo. It is always heartening to see young Americans meet such an extraordinary circumstance successfully. Courage like theirs strengthens and protects our communities everyday.

Mr. Speaker, I am honored to rise today and recognize the heroic efforts of Kathy Ortiz before this body of Congress and this nation. Kathy's quick actions, coupled with those of her fellow students, prevented a terrible fire from ending in great tragedy. Their selfless actions are an inspiration to us all, and it is an honor to represent such an outstanding group of Americans in this Congress.

IN SUPPORT OF MR. ESTRADA

HON. ILEANA ROS-LEHTINEN

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 11, 2003

Ms. ILEANA ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, today I rise in support of a fellow member of the Hispanic community and nominee to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit, Miguel Estrada.

Mr. Estrada personifies the success and achievement of our beloved community. His legal expertise will add a profound dimension to the court that is considered to be precursor to the Supreme Court. As an attorney, he has argued 15 cases before the U.S. Supreme Court, and has tried 10 cases as a prosecutor for the Southern District of New York.

A native of Honduras, Miguel Estrada is an American success story. During his first years in the U.S., Mr. Estrada spoke virtually no English. His commitment to education and improvement of the individual is demonstrated by the excellence of his academic record. As a graduate of Columbia College, where he graduated Phi Beta Kappa, and Harvard Law, Miguel Estrada's legal experience exceeds that of the average nominee.

If confirmed, Miguel Estrada would be the first Hispanic judge to serve on the court. President Bush served the Hispanic community well by nominating a man of such character and devotion to the Constitution.

Mr. Speaker, Miguel Estrada has my full support and best wishes on his nomination.

ELIMINATION OF CAP ON MEDICAID PAYMENTS TO THE U.S. TERRITORIES AND COMMONWEALTHS

HON. DONNA M. CHRISTENSEN

OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 11, 2003

Mrs. CHRISTENSEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to re-introduce legislation which continues to be the highest health care priority for the more than 4 million residents of our country's off-shore areas—the elimination of the cap on Medicaid payments to the U.S. Territories and Commonwealths.

Mr. Speaker and my colleagues, it saddens me as a physician, to report to you once again that our fellow indigent Americans living in American Samoa, Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands who qualify for Medicaid, receive less than adequate health care because the amount of federal Medicaid dollars we receive falls far short of meeting their needs. Because we face depressed economies with high unemployment rates, as well as, a growing indigent population, the ever-increasing cost of health care coupled with the federal cap means that our local governments have to bear a significantly greater cost of the Medicaid program than their counterparts in the states. This means, that for the bare bones Medicaid program in the Virgin Islands, the federal government contributed only $5.59 million of the $14,394 in fiscal year 2000 total cost of the program. In Guam, the local government spent three times more than the $5.4 million they received from the federal government to run their Medicaid program also in fiscal year 2000.

Mr. Speaker, this is my fourth term as a member of the House of Representatives. Every year I have been here, fighting to eliminate the cap on Medicaid for the insular areas has never been far from my focus.

Since becoming Chair of the Congressional Black Caucus Health Braintrust, I have garnered the support of my fellow Caucus members in calling attention to this problem and have made lifting the Medicaid cap for the off-shore areas a central item in the CBC's over-all health care agenda. I thank my colleagues for the support they have given me on this issue.

In 1997, we were successful with the help of the previous administration to secure important increases in our cap for which we were grateful but that was almost five years ago and the problems have gotten worse not better.

It is time that our country ends this inequity and, in this one area—health care—treat all Americans alike, whether they live in a state or not. We must end the practice of residents of the territories and commonwealths having to leave their homes to seek more and better health care services on the mainland, often splitting-up families all because our Medicaid program is under-funded and our local governments can't afford to pay the difference.

Mr. Speaker President Bush recently announced a proposal to modify and improve the way Medicaid works in the states. My colleagues from the off-shore areas and I look forward to working with the President, Health and Human Services Secretary Tommy Thompson as well as every member of this body to impress upon all of you the urgent need to end this unequal treatment of health care funding for the American citizens living in the territories and Commonwealths.

I urge my colleagues to join my cosponsors and I in supporting this bill. All Americans deserve the same health care program that their government provides, regardless of where in the country they happen to live.

TRIBUTE TO CLINT ALBRECHT

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 11, 2003

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I rise today to honor Clint Albrecht of Pueblo, Colorado for the selfless act of courage he displayed on November 8, 2002. Clint's quick actions, along with the efforts of other students from Centennial High School, helped Edith Lichtenberg to safety after flames engulfed her home.

On November 8, 2002, billowing smoke one block from Centennial High School prompted a group of students—Prince Speights, Clint Albrecht, Nick Pino, Kathy Ortiz, Linus Trujillo, and Taylor Proctor—into action.
